

Open hearts. Open minds. Open doors.
The people of The United Methodist Church®

Turning Connectional Living into Connectional Giving

A MESSAGE FOR COURSE REGISTRANTS

MAY 4, 2011

Connectional Giving Online Course Opens to Participants

Greetings!

Thank you for preregistering for the online course, "Turning Connectional Living into Connectional Giving." The May 4–June 15, 2011 session will open May 4th. If you experience any difficulties logging in or accessing the course, please contact our Online Course Support Center.

To access this online course, please follow these instructions:

1. Go to <http://moodle.umcom.org>.
2. Under "United Methodist Basics," select "Turning Connectional Living into Connectional Giving". NOTE: the course will not be visible until May 4th. You are welcome to login before then, but you will not see the course.
3. If you have previously setup an online learning account using your email address (username) and a password of your choosing, enter these on the left side of the login page. When prompted, enter enrollment key cg101may11. You will immediately be enrolled in the course and redirected to the course's home page. Skip to #7 below.
4. If this is your first time registering at the Online Learning Center, follow the instructions on the right side of the login page and click "Register" after completing the brief registration form. When prompted, enter enrollment key cg101may11.
5. You will immediately be enrolled in the course and redirected to the course's home page.
6. If this is your first time taking an online course using the learning management system, Moodle, begin with the "How to Use Moodle" book.
7. To begin the course, select the "Introduction" link next to the book icon under the "Welcome" section.
8. If you experience any difficulties accessing the course or its features, please contact our Online Course Support Center.

Thank you for your interest in online learning from The United Methodist Church provided by United Methodist Communications. Welcome!

United Methodist Communications
(888) 278-4862
training@umcom.org

United Methodist communications

